

Presentation Skills

Instructor-Led Training

Academic research tells us that an instructor standing in a room of 20 people does not always mean learning is taking place. To help you ensure the effectiveness of your trainers, SOS Intl has developed Presentation Skills, a two-day classroom course designed to improve instructor delivery methods and teach the techniques and tricks that expert instructors use to turn a typical presentation into an effective and captivating one.

Learning Objectives

- How to integrate the principles of adult learning and learning strategies into a presentation
- Choosing the best methods of audience-based delivery
- How to increase student retention of material through presentation
- Projecting credibility and a professional image to audiences
- Coping with 'speaker anxiety'
- Using audience motivation techniques

Approach

This course is designed to provide participants with advanced training skills necessary to capture audience attention and present material in a manner that increases retention, and most importantly, transfer of training to job.

INCLUDED SEGMENTS:

- Introduction to the ADDIE Process
- Basics of Adult Learning Principles
- Engaging Presentations
- Training Tips and Techniques
- Conveying Confidence
